Interior Design, Bachelor Degree Program, Student Achievement Data

The following data was collected using institutional records from our most recent institutional accreditation reporting period of July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2017. For students attending full-time, the program should be completed in 48 months.

Student Attrition and Retention

70% of students active during the reporting period graduated or maintained their enrollment.

Graduation Rates:

Of the students graduating during the reporting period, 55% graduated within the normal length of the program and 100% graduated within 150% of the normal length of the program.

Acceptance into Graduate Programs:

N/A: no students applied to graduate programs during this period.

Job Placement Rates:

80% of students who graduated during the reporting period are employed in interior design or a related profession.